² Each Veterinary Pet Insurance policy (VPI) from National Casualty helps pay for covered veterinary expenses related to the specified amount per covered illness or accident according to the plan's Benefit Schedule. The VPI Superior Plan and VPI Standard Plan offer coverage for dogs and cats beginning at 6 weeks of age. Coverage helps pay for: diagnostic tests, treatments, office visits, lab fees, prescriptions, hospitalization, X-rays and surgical procedures. Routine procedures such as vaccinations and teeth cleaning are not covered by the base policy. However, routine care coverage is available through a rider (endorsement) to the base policy. This list does not include insurance designed to pay for the treatment of livestock or horses, animal mortality insurance or veterinarian malpractice coverage.

³ This National Casualty plan covers birds of all types and exotic pets such as amphibians, chameleons, chinchillas, ferrets (limited), geckos, gerbils, guinea pigs, goats, hamsters, hedgehogs, iguanas, mice, pot belly pigs, rabbits, rats, snakes, small lizards, sugar gliders, tortoises, and turtles.
